

BORDER COUNTY NOTES

CARROLL

Word has been received from the sculptor F. C. Hubbard at Chicago that the Shields statue is done all excepting a few finishing touches which will be completed in time to ship the stone by July 20.

Lightning Tuesday of last week destroyed the large barn of Leger Stout in Miami township causing a loss of $6000. Many fine horses were burned. Insurance $2100.

Fred Bruemmer of Prairie township died June 27 of tuberculosis at the age of 51 years. He was born in Germany and came to this county in 1882. His widow and twelve children survive his demise.

The Carrollton band went to Hale to play for the Fourth.

W. E. Buchanan aged 73 years died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Tomlin at Carrollton, June 27. He was a native of Indiana and has four living children. The funeral was held at the Beatty church in Trotter Sunday June 28.

Dr. S. W. Ewell at the age of 58 years, died at the hospital at Carrollton June 25 at the end of an illness of several weeks. His widow and four children, all of Carrollton survive. He was the owner of a drugstore at Bucklin when he died.

The Wakenda drainage district which has completed the dredging of the drainage ditch has let the contract for a levee three and a half miles long which will put the finishing touches on the protective work on farm lands in that district. The contract went to Raesom & Cook of Ottawa, Kas. and bonds for $15,000 were issued to pay for the work.

Eight loads of cattle and there of hogs were shipped Monday of last week from points in this county to the markets.

A new theatre is to be erected at Carrollton with a seating capacity of 700. It will be for vaudeville, moving pictures and other theatrical entertainments.

John T. Patton, sr., who lives 5 miles southeast of Bosworth, died at his home Friday morning of heart trouble. Mr. Patton was one of the pioneer citizens of this county, having come to this county in 1866.

Marriage licenses: — John Charboneau, Mrs. Rebecca E. Davis, Hale; Chas. B. Forrest, Helen M. Perry, Carrollton; Simon W. Stronge, Virginia Mathieson, Bosworth; Wm. E. Furlong, Josephine A. Swain, Bosworth; Arthur Coppage, Ft. Madison, Pearl Stephens, Hale; Rudolph W. Reading, Edith Grigsby, Carrollton; Robert F. Lynch, Idaho, Margaret Lee Huddle, Norborne; Kenneth Polson, DeWitt, Dilda Wright, Miami Station.

Not This Conrad

A report was in the Kansas City paper last week that Fred Conrad of near Prairie Hill had been killed at Omaha, Neb., when a rig in which he was riding was hit by a train. The report stated that Conrad and a companion were riding in a buggy and while talking forgot to look out for the cars. A call at Prairie Hill brought the information that Fred Conrad of Prairie Hill was alive and well and that while a Fred Conrad was killed, perhaps, it was not the Chariton county Conrad.

Dr. Gaines formerly a practicing dentist of this place and who is practicing his profession in the western part of the state was brought home last week to Brunswick where he was down with an attack of typhoid fever. Later reports indicate that he died.

HOWARD

Miss Winona Golong formerly of Glasgow was married June 30 to Hubert Housman of Chicago at Leavensworth, Kansas.

The editor of the Missourian at Glasgow is raising a protest because the White Way lights there are not permitted to burn a while longer than they are.

Last week a weasel killed 18 chickens belonging to Mrs. Ruffel of Glasgow. The next day a trap was set for him and he paid the penalty of the poacher.

The old Essig mill at Glasgow built 55 years ago by Michael English and last operated by Jacob Essig 35 years ago burned June 29. It had caught fire many times before but it had been rescued from the flames. The mill had not been operated for some time and is the property of the Essig estate.

Over $1100 was subscribed to the road fund at the conclusion of a meeting held at the Oakland school last week.

The barn of Guy Turner was struck by lightning and destroyed by fire last week.

Ledru Jaeger living west of Fayette was badly cut by a barb wire in a creek while driving last week. He is getting along alright.

Mrs. Mary Dulany died at her home two miles north of Fayette June 30 at the age of 70 years. She is survived by five children. Funeral was held Friday.

Mrs. Walter Long of Longfont, Colo., died at a hospital at Denver, at the age of 82 years, July 1. The remains were brought to Armstrong the former home for interment.

Charles Besgrove 62 years old, died at his home near Fayette June 27 after illness of several months. He was born in England. His widow but no children survive. Burial was June 29 in the city cemetery.

Horace Kingsbury of near New Franklin lost his barn and two silos by fire Sunday June 28. The loss was about $5000.

Rhodes Estill of near Fayette says that his 150 acres of alfalfa this year will yield him 150 tons this year which means a rate of $66 per acre.

Miss Josephine Fleet of New Franklin and D. G. Hubnell of Portland, Oregon were married by Rev. Denton at the bride's home July 1.

Frank Miller an employe of the Goodson store at Fayette was injured when a crated buggy fell on him last week. His head was injured and his chest crushed.

Mrs. Claib Eaton suicided at Kansas City last week. Her husband died from injuries caused while at work on the railroad last February. Mrs. Eaton shot herself and when she died had the photograph of her husband in her hand.

A dance, a free-for-all, was given at the American theatre Saturday night at the close of the close of the other festivities and quite a few perspired and cavorted for a while.

RANDOLPH

July 1 the barn of Ned McCune south of Renick caught fire and was burned with about 15 tons of hay and a number of buggies and farm implements. There was a small sum of insurance.

The large ice house owned by Walden Clark at Clifton Hill was destroyed by fire June 30. There was 150 tons of ice in the house belonging to R. B. Twyman. The loss is from $800 to $1000.

Thursday of last week thirty automobiles from Moberly made a trip of the county to emphasize the good points of Moberly.

Rolla Sparkman and Miss Ethel Egar of Moberly were married July 1 by Rev. R. F. Davis. The groom is an employe of the Wabash shops.

J. Hill had a leg broken last week at the Rensselaer hill. The tender of the engine was derailed and this threw Hill out of the cab window breaking the leg.

The large feed barn of H. L. Rutherford jr. of near Huntsville was destroyed by fire Monday of last week. The loss was $3000 with insurance of $1500.

The funeral of the late W. L. Greer who died at Moberly at the age of 42 years, was held Friday of last week at the home of Mrs. Randolph, a sister of the deceased.

The Moberly Artificial Ice Co. has made arrangements to build another large plant at the north end of Williams St. The outside work will be done during the summer and the inside finishing next winter.

Gordon W. Wilson aged 16 months son of William Wilson died at the home at Moberly last week and was buried at Oakland cemetery after funeral service at the home of Rev. Harrison.

Marriage licenses issued at Moberly last week are: D. Harris and Miss Edith Boyd, Moberly; Pressley M. Arthur, Miss Mary Robertson, Moberly; Rolla Sparkman, Miss Ethel Egan, Moberly; Wm. Harlow, Miss Jessie Johnson, Higbee; Fritz Herman Haak, Miss Dora Stadler, Madison.

Cured of Indigestion.

Mrs. Sadie P. Clawson, Indiana, Pa., was bothered with indigestion. "My stomach pained me night and day," she writes. "I would feel bloated and have headache and belching after eating. I also suffered from constipation. My daughter had used Chamberlain's Tablets and they did her so much good that she gave me a few doses of them and insisted upon my trying them. They helped me as nothing else has done." For sale by all dealers.

Chinchbugs Get Corn

The Sumner Star of last week says that the chinchbugs are making the corn pretty hard to grow in that neighborhood. It stated that some of the farmers had lost as high as fifty acres of corn in a few days, bounty to the rapacity of the bugs.

SALINE

Two weeks ago John Flynn a white man of Slater was stabbed either by a white man named Talbot or a negress Louise Brown, over whom they were fighting. They had a general fight in which knives were drawn.

Sam Taylor a negro, is in jail charged with stabbing Eva Johnson at a dance at Marshall June 27. They got into a racket and the man stuck a knife in the woman's ribs.

A. C. Hill was painfully but not seriously injured when his horse became frightened and threw him out of his buggy. Mr. Hill, Dr. S. T. Mead and Tom Dumm, of Jefferson City had been out to wheat threshing on the Mead farm and were returning to Slater. In passing an automobile, the horse began running and Mr. Hill who was driving, turned him to the right of the road. The animal ran into a ditch and the buggy turned over throwing the occupants out.

Frank C. Christy, aged 50 years, died at his home in Salem, Oregon, Monday June 22nd. He was the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Christy, formerly of Marshall, but now of St. Louis. He is survived by a wife and one daughter, several brothers and sisters. Mrs. Mary Piper of Slater is one of the sisters. The funeral and burial was at Salem which was the home of the deceased for the past 25 years.

Mrs. C. W. Downs died at her home south of Marshall, Thursday, June 25th, at 3:30 p. m. of meningitis. She has been very ill with meningitis for the last ten days.

Sam Hall and Miss Mabel Steele, both of Slater, were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Alexander, at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon July 1 by Rev. S. F. Wilson.

Marriage Licenses: — Walker C. Fletcher Alma and Nancy D. Branch Marshall; Norvin Armstrong Slater and Lorena Ehrman Marshall; J. D. Wilson and Caddy Liles Norton; R. D. Richardson Slater and Ora Cagle Waverly; Sam Hall and Mabel Steele Slater.

LIVINGSTON

The Citizens bank of Wheeling was opened for business last week. It is capitalized at $12,500.

One of the big columns which was ordered for the new court house was unused and the contractor tried to give it away. No takers appearing holes were dug and the big column rolled therein and buried.

The will of the late William H. Robinson was probated. G. H. Robinson is named as executor.

During the rain storm of last week the lightning struck and killed four cows and a bull belonging to C. Haney living near Wheeling. The animals were all of blooded stock and the loss is heavy.

C. W. Newkirk of Chillicothe received word that his brother, J. O. Newkirk is dead at the age of 81 years.

C. I. Ford the oldest man in Cameron passed away July 1 at the age of 92 years. He was born in Massachusetts and came to Cameron in 1866. He was the father of eleven children of whom only one is living. There are 309 automobiles in this county.

The poles on the White Way at Chillicothe are being painted.

At a meeting of Co. I. M. N. G. last week the first and second

LINN

The Santa Fe Country club of Marceline with a membership of 190 members held its third annual election the past week. President Sears announced that he would not again be a candidate for election.

The Marceline Sanitarium is a new institution of that city.

An Italian, with a ticket from San Francisco to New York and from there via steamer to Italy was found to be crazy aboard a train at Marceline last week. An officer was put in charge of the man and he will be hustled out of this country. He had been working in San Francisco.

The Marceline Commercial Club is planning a big auto tour of Linn county soon. It is hoped to have every auto in the town on the tour that day which will cover Linn county.

The bonds of $18,000 issued at Marceline for a new school building have been accepted by the bond buyers and it is hoped to get the schools in readiness for the regular opening period.

Chris Noll who died recently at Glasgow was owner of the Commercial hotel at Marceline.

Ray E. Burgett, a switchman died at Armourdale, Kansas June 28, at the age of 26 years. He was afflicted of pneumonia. He is survived by his widow and three children. The remains were brought back to Marceline for interment at Elmwood cemetery June 29.

Marceline is trying to boost the stamp sales in hopes the town may get free delivery of mail.

Sam Caswell who was arrested in Linn county for breaking into a box car and later escaped from jail was arrested at Ft. Madison, Iowa. He is wanted also for several other charges.

Harold E. Collins of Brookfield and Miss Virginia Wilson, of Breckenridge were married June 26 at the home of John Allard in Brookfield. They live in Brookfield.

Alma Schoch, aged 12 years, died at her home at Hybrid June 29. The funeral occurred at the Pleasant View Baptist church, Tuesday.

Mrs. D. F. Howard died at the hospital at St. Louis June 30 after the performance of a secondary surgical operation. She was 43 years of age. The funeral was held Friday.

lieutenants for the company were elected.

M. E. Collins and Miss Virginia Wilson were married June 26 at 8 o'clock by Rev. J. O. Taylor of the Methodist church at Brookfield. They went to Chillicothe for a visit and returned to Brookfield to make their home.

The board of education of the Galt school has selected E. Sparling formerly of Chillicothe for the head of their schools for the next year. The salary is $100.

Edith A. Arenz, wife of J. T. Arenz, died Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the family home, one mile east of Chillicothe. Dropsy, with which she had suffered for two years, was the direct cause of death. Besides her husband she is survived by three children.

A minister complains that women are taking up the vices men are discarding, but fails to mention what vices men are abandoning.

HAPPY MOTHERHOOD

The happiness of motherhood is too often checked because the mother's strength is not equal to her cares, while her unselfish devotion neglects her own health. It is a duty of husband or friend to see that she gets the pure medicinal nourishment in Scott's Emulsion, which is not a drug or stimulant, but nature's concentrated oil-food tonic to enrich and invigorate the blood, strengthen the nerves and aid the appetite. Physicians everywhere prescribe Scott's Emulsion for overworked, nervous, tired women; it builds up and holds up their strength. Get Scott's at your nearest drug store.

MACON

The dates for the Callao fair are September 15-17.

The Macon chief of police confiscated a small lot of liquor in a Weed street restaurant last week. The restaurant man said it was for his own use and the officers have made no prosecution.

David Toomey of Bevier charged with assaulting his wife was put under bond of $750 at Bevier to answer the next term of circuit court. Toomey was arrested a year ago but his wife failed to appear against him then.

The F. O. E. have bought the old Tremont hotel property for the lodge home at Macon.

Leroy Lucas and Miss Regina McDonald of Macon were married at Kirksville June 28. The groom is a baker at Macon where he and his wife will reside.

On August third and fourth, at Macon there will be a convention of the churches of the county. There are twenty-one churches that will have part in the meeting.

Jasper Davidson, section foreman at Macon, lost a foot, the same being amputated at Moberly after a rail had fallen on it and crushed it.

Mrs. Hiram Lucas of Bevier died June 26 at the age of 45. Burial, was at Oakwood cemetery. She leaves her husband and four children.

William Lewis, formerly a resident of near Bevier is dead at Plattsburg, Kansas.

In a scrap last week William Shearon struck Tom Gipson over the wrist with a buggy whip and broke a bone. The arguments started over Shearon's request for the loan of a binder from Gipson. Shearon was arrested and is out on bond of $300.

William Owens aged 65, a brother of Dr. T. F. Owens of Macon died at Windfall, Indiana, June 29. He leaves a large estate to his two daughters.

It is expected that the electric light service from Macon will be extended to Bevier by August 1 and to Callao a little later.

H. N. Sulhoff and Miss Rachel Isbeque of Macon were married June 30 at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. Lehr. They are housekeeping at Macon.

Marriage licenses: — Henry M. Sulhoff and Rachel Isbeque Macon; Earl Teter and Pearl E. Linn Ardmore; Charles E. Grubb and Jessie Nelson Macon.

Elm Ridge

Mrs. T. J. Coy, who has been sick for some time is improving some.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Edwards Wednesday June 24 a fine girl. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

Paul Kistler and wife visited the latter's sister, Mrs. Clarence Garhart and family Sunday.

Sam Coy, who has been confined to his bed for the last three months with rheumatism is able to get about with crutches.

Frank Fetzner and family spent Sunday at Geo. Huckabey's.

Miss Esther Kistler returned home Tuesday after a two week's visit with friends in Renick.

William P. Givens

Wednesday July 1 occurred the death of William P. Givens at his home in Salisbury at the age of 75 years. He was born in Ohio and was twice married. He is survived by his wife and ten children, all children of his second wife. The funeral was held Thursday with Rev. Pugh in charge. Death was due to paralysis which continued about a fortnight before death.

Men Fight On Their Stomachs

Napoleon so said. A man with a weak stomach is pretty sure to be a poor fighter. It is difficult—almost impossible—for anyone, man or woman, if digestion is poor, to succeed in business or socially—or to enjoy life. In tablet or liquid form helps weak stomachs to strong, healthy action—helps them to digest the food that makes the good, rich, red blood which nourishes the entire body. This vegetable remedy, to a great extent, puts the liver into activity—oil the machinery of the human system so that those who spend their working hours at the desk, behind the counter, or in the home are rejuvenated into vigorous health.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

Has brought relief to many thousands every year for over forty years. It cures indigestion, gas and constipation, restores to you your former health and strength. Ask your druggist to give you a trial. Sold by Medicine Dealers and sent by mail for 25 cents. Dr. Pierce's Medical Discovery, 100 West 11th St., Buffalo, N. Y.

You can have Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery of 1000 Pages for $10.

